

BIBLIOGRAPHY

It is of the utmost importance that students have their textbook since the first day of classes:

1. M. Balme – G. Lawall, Athénaze 1, Oxford University Press
2. M. Balme – G. Lawall, Athénaze 2, Oxford University Press
3. M. Balme – G. Lawall – J. Morwoodi, Athenaze, Workbook I: An Introduction to Ancient Greek, Revised Third Edition, Oxford University Press
4. M. Balme – G. Lawall – J. Morwood, Athenaze, Workbook II: An Introduction to Ancient Greek, Revised Third Edition, Oxford University Press
5. Excerpts (provided by the instructor) from C. W. E. Peckett, A. R. Munday, Thrasymachus, Bloomsbury Publishing Plc
6. Excerpts (provided by the instructor) of Greek classics, including passages from Plato, Homer, Simonides and others

Recommended readings (the following texts are not required for the exam, but are recommended for those who wish to strengthen their knowledge):

1. W. H. D. Rouse, A Greek boy at home, Blackie & Son (visit the link)
2. P. Saffire – C. Freis, Ancient Greek alive, University of North Carolina
3. Joint Association of Classical Teachers, Reading Greek, Cambridge University